The factors which prompted the selling of stocks last week were ignored today, although some of them occupied a place of equal prominence in the day's news. Captain Dalton of the New London team beat the best previous records of the league for individual single and three string, with a single of 124 and a triple of 316. This beat out the string of 118 formerly held by himself and Wibur of New London and Irvine of Westerly. With his three string he beat the string of 312 rolled by Babcock of Westerly.

He kept up a running fire of remarks, either directly insulting to Burns or Intended to express indirect contempt. Throughout the contest & was manifest that Johnson was fighting something beside the short, game Belgian. Canadian, who took the blows showered on him and camer for more until his face resembled samething that was scarcely human. It was an ethnological study as well as a boxing contest, and the white man's burden was too great for Burns to carry. From the beginning to the end Burns did not get what is known as a look-in. As he prevailed over Squires by a system of infighting, new in Australia, so did Johnson beat him by the same tactics, and as far as outfighting was concerned. Burns could not reach the negro. The hits he ained fell short, and the only effect was to cause a broad grin from a mouthful of gold teeth and either an invitation to show what he could it or a nod to an imaginary sequality.

"Come on, Tommy," smiled Johnson.

"Ain't I clever, eh?" The last to the crowd, and though everybody present was agreed as ac his cleverness, it was plain that not an admirer present thought Johnson half as clever as he plain that not an admirer present thought Johnson half as clever as he thought himself.
